Dr. Nansen Deplores Political Atmosphere Clouding Relief

CECIL IN SUPPORT

Lord Robert Approves Agreement Made With The Soviet Govt.

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 23.—The sixth committee of the League of Nations yesterday adopted unanimously a combined resolution by Lord Robert Cecil and Signor Schanzer asking the Military Commission to draft general proposals on the reduction of armaments for submission to next year's meeting of the Assembly. The resolution resulted in a lively debate in which Mr. H. A. L. Fisher, Lord Robert Cecil and Signor Schanzer participated.

The Committee then discussed the Russian famine. Dr. Nansen vehemently denounced the deplorable political atmosphere surrounding the problem and flatly denied the rumor that one of Mr. Hoover's food trains had been pillaged by Soviet troops.

Dr. Nansen declared that the American relief organisation was now feeding 3,000,000 children instead of 1,000,000.

Lord Robert Cecil warmly upheld Dr. Nansen's agreement with the Soviet Government which he considered thoroughly satisfactory and urged the Committee to express its approval of the agreement.

Mr. Fisher wound up the debate by declaring that the governments were not able directly to assist relief schemes.

BOLIVIA DEFERS CLAIM

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 27.—The Bolivian delegation to the League of Nations have received instructions from its Government not to insist at present on the recognition by the Assembly of the claims of Bolivia in the dispute with Chile.

Bolivia, however, reserves the right to bring the matter before the Assembly of 1922.

WELSH MINES TO CLOSE OWING TO 10 'BOB' BONUS

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 27.—A serious position has arisen in the South Wales coalfield owing to a misinterpretation of the settlement of the last coal strike, the Mines Department requiring the owners to contribute a further ten shillings a ton, amounting to £750,000, towards wages.

The owners had expected this sum to be provided from the Government subsidy of £10,000,000, of which £3,000,000 remain.

After a hurried meeting at the Cardiff Coal Exchange the owners decided to close a large number of collieries. If this decision is carried out the unemployment situation in South Wales will be seriously aggravated.

Later.—Following the South Wales coal bombshell all quotations were withdrawn from the Swansea Coal Exchange today in view of the uncertainty of the position.

London, Sept. 27.—Mr. Winston Churchill, addressing members of the Gold Coast Civil Service at a dinner today, suggested that something shall be done to relieve the present lack of enterprise and initiative in the business and industrial world by placing orders for railway material and all apparatus, needed to develop the natural resources of the Crown Colonies which Parliament had hitherto neglected.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. Is Honored By Chinese Businessmen At Tiffin

'Two Ties Bind Me To China, Business And Father's Philanthropy' He Tells Guests

PRAISES PEOPLE

Co-operation Is Easy If Contact Precedes, Says Oil Magnate's Son

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER JR.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and members of his party were guests of honor at a tiffin yesterday at the building of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce in reponse to the invitation of the Chamber. Mrs. Rockefeller was prevented from being present.

Mr. C. C. Nieh, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, presided. Among the foreign guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Lyman, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. White, Mr. H. J. Everall, and Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood. Among the Chinese guests present were Dr. C. T. Wang, Dr. David Yui, Dr. John Lee, Dr. Y. C. Tong, Dr. Huang Yen-pei, Mr. Lou Kingshiu and Mr. Y. C. Bau.

Mr. C. C. Nieh's address of welcome follows:

"Mr. Rockefeller, honored guests and gentlemen:

"Today the General Chamber of Commerce is being highly honored by the presence of Mr. Rockefeller and his distinguished party of medical men, teachers, and scientists, and we take great pleasure in tendering them our heartiest welcome.

"During the past week, despite the strife, floods, and turmoil in the country, a most significant event of an international character took place in Peking. I am referring to the official opening of the new and magnificent quarters of the Union Medical College.

"It is significant, first, because it is a constructive endeavor directly related to human welfare; second, because it exemplifies a high type of the unselfishness of the human heart, as the college, we all know, is being supported and endowed by Mr. Rockefeller and his esteemed father; and, third, because it is a remarkable demonstration of international co-operation, the spirit of which needs to be so greatly heightened throughout the world during these days.

"Although many of us could not join in the felicitations in Peking, yet there was a deep yearning in our hearts to go to express our profound gratitude for this wonderful token of international friendship. We are, therefore, exceedingly happy to have this opportunity of satisfying our yearning by honoring Mr. Rockefeller and his brilliant party in this feeble way.

"We can assure you the welcome is from the bottom of our hearts.

EDUCATION IN CHINA

"Four centuries in China, education has been looked upon as a most fundamental means of elevating our people, and has in so far as possible, been provided in different ways. In fact, private educational institutions have been the mainstay. Government school education of the modern type is a very recent affair.

"I am glad to say, that, in addition to government schools, our people have kept up their interest in education and are still providing liberal support for private schools. I may, perhaps, be permitted to refer briefly to a few instances which are more or less well known.

"Pootung Middlle School is one of the best of its kind in Shanghai. Its founder, Mr. Yang, we remember, was a poor contractor with practically no education. Through hard effort and honesty, he made a small fortune which he did not give to his children. Because of his conviction that education was an all important thing in life, he started and endowed the said school. We do not think it difficult to cite instances of this kind in Shanghai and in other places in the country.

NANKAI AT TIENTSIN

"Nankai University in Tientsin under the patronage of Mr. Yen Hsiu and the presidency of Dr. Chang Po-lin is another prominent example of private educational institutions in China. Some twenty years ago, it started with a handful of students in Mr. Yen's home.

"Now the influence of the University is being felt in the country, and its future is unbounded. Not more than a year ago, it received an endowment of half a million dollars from a Chinese friend and supporter of the University.

"Mr. Kan Chao-nan and the Nanyang Brothers are doing a very generous thing by supporting 30 young men for higher education along industrial, agricultural and commercial lines in America. These men were carefully selected through competitive examinations in Shanghai and in Canton. We understand plans are already being made to select and send another fifteen men in the summer of 1922.

"Mr. Kan believes in providing for China through his own means professional leadership of the highest type. There are not a few others who have similar purposes and are supporting men on scholarships abroad, and time does not allow me to mention their names.

IN SOUTH CHINA

"I must refer to another instance in South China. The name of Tan-Ka-kee of Amoy is now well-known in the country, perhaps also abroad. Mr. Tan went to Singapore some 30 years ago in search of some work to do. He was at first engaged in manual labor, and later started a small business of his own.

"Being very sagacious, careful and honest, his business soon developed prosperously. Despite several reverses in business, Mr. Tan amassed much wealth. A question soon entered his mind. 'What shall I do with the money now entrusted to me in such a full measure for our fatherland and fellow-countrymen'? Almost instinctively he turned to education.

"The success of his experiments in kindergarten, elementary, middle and normal school education, helped him to decide to use his money for educational purposes. According to his own statement, he has already completed all legal arrangements to endow his own educational system, from kindergarten to middle and normal school, with $9,000,000 and to set aside $5,000,000 to help start the Amoy University.

CHINA'S CONTRIBUTION

"Medical science has made remarkable progress in the West during the last few decades. Through it much human suffering has been allayed. The Union Medical College will be doing a real service by assisting in the training of Chinese young men and women for that profession. At the same time, I need hardly point out that there is, doubtless, much in Chinese medicine that is of real value. This has not yet been scientifically studied and standardised

"When this is done, China will have a real and rich contribution to make to medical science. It is our hope, therefore, that the Union Medical College will help make this contribution possible. A group of Chinese men of means in Amoy and in the Straits Settlements, have been planning to start a medical college in Amoy.

"These instances are cited not so much to show the genuine interest in education on the part of our people as to assure Mr. Rockefeller and his distinguished party, because of this genuine interest, our appreciation of the Union Medical College in Peking and the spirit behind it is profound and real.

"We take the keenest pleasure in welcoming the honored party today and in sending our heartiest thanks to the donors. We beg of you, Mr. Rockefeller, to convey the same to your esteemed father."

Mr. Rockefeller made a very sympathetic address in reply, and the earnestness with which he delivered his thoughts made a

Uniform Treaties For All Defining Limits Is His Main Idea

EQUALITY IS AIM

Tells Senators To Let Canal Tolls Issue Rest, And Not Antagonise

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Sept. 27.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times states that President Harding has informed the Republican Senators that in his opinion the vote on Senator Borah's bill restoring the law exempting American coasting vessels from payment of the tolls in the Panama Canal should be delayed until after the Washington Conference, as he feared that the repeal of the Panama Tolls Act, if accomplished by an act of Congress, would introduce another disputable issue into the Conference and would influence the attitude of the British delegates.

The same correspondent states that the administration hopes that the Conference will agree on measures providing for general agreements to replace the Anglo-Japanese Alliance and agreements between Japan and the Western Powers affecting China.

The Administration's idea is to arrange for virtually identical treaties between China and each of the Powers, defining exactly the limits of rightful claims of foreign Powers so that the era after the Conference may start with a clean sheet with all Powers subscribing to the principle of the open door and equal commercial and industrial opportunities.

GERMAN POLICE MUST BE CUT AT ONCE SAY ALLIES

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Sept. 27.—A note of the Inter-Allied Control Commission demands that the German police force be immediately reduced to the level demanded by the Entente and declares that nothing has been done to carry out the stipulations regarding the decentralising of the force which is still organised in tactical units and which is really a mobile fighting force similar to the Reichswehr.

London, Sept. 27.—In connection with the revival of alarmist reports in regard to the strength of the Germany army, Reuter's Agency learns authoritatively that the Inter-Allied Control Commission is perfectly satisfied with the progress of the surrender and destruction of German armaments.

Official quarters state that there is not the slightest apprehension of any possibility of Germany being able to organise and equip an army of such size as to constitute a danger to the Allies.

There are plenty of men but all the necessary armament and equipment are lacking.

Berlin, Sept. 27.—A telegram from Frankfurt states that workmen have taken possession of the Hoechst dye works, which closed down and dismissed all its workers owing to alleged unreasonable wage demands, and refuse to allow anyone to enter without their consent.

No disturbances have occurred. The French authorities have announced that they will not interfere, but they have requested the workmen to refrain from violence.

London Timber Yard Blaze Destroys 21 Acres

TWENTY-ONE acres of lumber in the yards of Gilksten and Son, Ltd., at Stratford, London, burned for more than six hours, baffling the attempts of the Fire Department to extinguish the blaze. Although Scotland Yard claims that the unemployed had nothing to do in connection with the fire, members of the firm insist that it was set on fire by some of the disappointed 5,000 applicants for the twenty odd jobs open at the lumber yard. In response to an advertisement calling for twenty porters, at $8 per week, 5,000 applicants appeared. The fire was discovered shortly after the twenty men selected had gone to work.

News of the death of Bishop Walter Russell Lambuth, D. D., M. D., of the Southern Methodist Church, one of the greatest pioneer missionaries of the century, author of note and world leader in religious activities, following a major operation in Yokohama was received in Shanghai yesterday.

While the members of the Southern Methodist mission of China knew that Dr. Lambuth was in a critical condition due to a failure to rally from a critical operation, the news of his death came as a great shock.

The death of the greatest pioneer bishop of this church is felt especially at this time as he was due to arrive in China in October to make an inspection of the missionary activities and preside at the nineteenth conference of the Southern Methodist Church, China Mission.

Bishop Lambuth's death will be mourned around the world, for he was equally loved and revered in Japan, China and Africa where he conducted his missionary activities.

Bishop Lambuth was born in Shanghai in 1854, his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lambuth, having made the trip to the Orient via the Cape of Good Hope on a fishing schooner.

As a boy he worked with his father in missionary work and studied at home, later going to America where he received an M. A. degree from Emory and Henry College in Virginia and an M. D. degree at Vanderbilt College. He returned to China in 1877 where he took up his work as a medical missionary.

He visited Africa twice and established a number of missions in the heart of Africa.

Due to the great need of a Bishop in the Orient, Bishop Lambuth was reappointed to the Far East and last year conducted the China Mission Conference.

Bishop Lambuth leaves in China his sister, Mrs. W. H. Park, wife of Dr. W. H. Park of Soochow, and two nieces, Mrs. David Lewis and Mrs. Rita Schertz also of Soochow.

A memorial service will be held for Bishop Lambuth during the conference of the China Mission which will convene in Soochow in October.

Filipino Fingers Must Give Way To Forks, Say Women

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Sept. 15 (by mail).—The use of knives, forks, spoons and other adjuncts of Western civilisation is urged by some of the women's clubs of the Philippines in a memorial to the department of public instruction.

The memorial states that the Philippines have now reached a stage of advancement where forks should supplant fingers in every Filipino home. To foster their use, the department is urged to have the school children manufacture them in their vocational schools, thus making them available at moderate expense in the most remote barrios.

"Even the Chinese are more civilised than the Filipinos in this respect, for they at least use chopsticks," the memorial concludes.

Colonel Campbell has been appointed Military Governor of the city. He immediately issued regulations which had a very salutary effect, the shooting ceasing after six o'clock in the morning yesterday, though there were sporadic attacks with revolvers and other weapons during the day.

A military communique issued in that connection says that Catholics were attacked in nine cases, including three where workmen were driven from their employment while a Protestant was beaten in the Catholic area.

marked impression on the audience who admired, above everything else his simplicity of manner. Mr. Rockefeller will speak at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. at 8 p.m. today and admission will be by ticket only. His address follows.

ROCKEFELLER'S ADDRESS

"Mr. Chairman and members of the Chamber of Commerce:

"I count it a high privilege to have this opportunity of meeting the leading business men of Shanghai and desire to thank you for the hospitality which you have thus shown me.

"There are two ties which bind me to China. The first is the tie of business. It was my father who founded the Standard Oil Company, which is doing business all over the world and has its representatives in many parts of China. Most pleasant have been the relations of the company with the merchants of China, while its contact generally with the business men and officials of the Republic have been equally agreeable. My father and I are glad to have a part in helping to build up the commerce of this great Republic.

"The second tie which binds me to China is humanitarian or philanthropic. It is in this connection that I have come to the Orient. My father's interest in China extends over many years. China with her history going back thousands of years; her early industrial development; her literature and art, so rich and so beautiful; her population the largest of any country in the world; long since made a strong appeal to my father and led to his desire to be of service to her people.

EFFECT ON NEIGHBORS

"A careful study of the needs of China revealed the fact that improvement in public health was one of the greatest needs, for obviously health is fundamentally to the well being, the happiness and the prosperity of any nation. Hence my father has sought, through the Peking Union Medical College, to aid in establishing high standards of public health and education throughout the Chinese Nation.

"A great fundamental principle underlies my father's business and philanthropic endeavors, and such success as has attained both—it is the principle of Co-operation. Co-operation depends on contact. Difficulties and misunderstandings usually spring from lack of contact. When men get together and discuss matters of common interest their differences rapidly grow fewer, their points of agreement more numerous. It was Charles Lamb, I think, who said 'I cannot hate the man I know.'

"While I have long shared my father's sympathetic interest in China, my coming here has greatly helped me to understand the Chinese people and their problems. Such interchange of visits between the men of various nations is of inestimable value, as is the interchange of students and professors in our universities.

"The principle of co-operation was practically unknown in the early days of the business development of the United States. Then every man was seeking to advance his own personal interest. Especially was this true in the oil business, when my father first went into it.

"Quickly realising, however, the needless waste of such conditions he soon began to get together the leaders in the business and gradually developed the principle of co-operation which has since been so widely adopted both in the United States and in other countries and which alone has been able to bring together adequate sums of money and adequate forces of men to meet the vast demands which are made upon the great corporations of modern civilisation.

"In the philanthropic work which he has established this same principle of co-operation operates. Through the Rockefeller Foundation, the largest of his philanthropies, my father is aiding in the improvement of public health in thirty-five countries throughout the world. The representatives of the Foundation first study the conditions in a given country, then seek to develop confidence in their plans and purposes, coming as they do not to get but to give and shortly are able to bring about co-operative arrangements with governments and peoples looking toward the accomplishment of the desired end. Co-operation is the keynote of all of the work of the Rockefeller Foundation. It is often difficult to do things for people but usually easy to do things with them.

"But the principle of co-operation as applied to individuals and groups in business and philanthropy is equally applicable nationally and internationally and in the various relations of men. Formerly adjacent provinces or states were more remote than are London and Shanghai today.

NEEDS OF CHINA

"With the introduction of the steamboat, the railroad, the telegraph, the wireless, the aeroplane, space and distance have been annihilated. Today disturbed conditions in any one country of the world inevitably have their effect upon its neighbors, near or distant. Crop failures on one continent may mean famine or high prices on another. A financial panic in London seriously disturbs money conditions in New York and Shanghai, while there is no country which has not been seriously affected by the great European War.

"No man can live unto himself alone, nor can any nation. Individualism is no longer possible in civilised society for either man or nations. In co-operation alone lies the hope of the future. Co-operation implies goodwill. It is the surest guarantee of peace, and peace is essential to the promotion of the health, the happiness and the prosperity of the world. May China and the United States ever stand together in friendly co-operation to further international peace.

"In closing, let me say that my coming to the Orient has no political or financial significance. I come as a plain citizen of the United States, representing my father and seeking nothing other than to be of service through the Peking Union Medical College in promoting with the people of China the health of the nation.

"I bring to you business men of China a message of good will and friendship from my father, who is happy to co-operate with you in the advancement of commerce and of public health in China, and I am glad to feel that I can take back to him the assurance of your friendly co-operation."

SOVIET NOTE IS DEEMED EVASIVE

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 27.—The Foreign Office expresses the opinion that the Soviet reply to Lord Curzon's note does not attempt to answer the very grave charges against the Soviet which are based on definite evidence.

The Soviet apparently merely contents itself with stating that certain individuals are not involved. This is unimportant in view of the well-known fact that owing to their mutual distrust the heads of the Soviet departments are always changing.

London, Sept. 27.—In view of alarming reports regarding the safety of the members of the All-Russian Committee, Dr. Nansen has telegraphed to M. Tchicherin asking whether the report that four members of the Committee had been condemned to death is true.

Rabies Described By Head Of Health Office

The following discussion of rabies, by Dr. C. Noel Davis, Acting Commissioner of Public Health, appears in today's Municipal Gazette.

The Disease.—Rabies or hydrophobia is an acute fatal disease, generally communicated to man through a wound made by the teeth of some infected animal, the saliva being the infective medium.

Dogs, cats, goats, cows, horses, and other animals are susceptible to the disease and their bites are very dangerous.

Hydrophobia may also be contracted by allowing the saliva (froth) of an infected animal to come in contact with a cut or scratch.

This sometimes happens in adjusting muzzles, in trying to remove what seems to be a bone in the throat, or in giving medicines.

The saliva may be virulent (poisonous) for one or two days before a dog shows any signs of being sick.

Symptoms.—The disease in the dog appears in two forms. In the furious type, he may suddenly leave home, wandering off for many miles, perhaps, to return in a day or two emaciated, wounded and utterly changed.

During the time of "running mad" he may have bitten many persons and other animals. He seems impelled to bite anything that comes in his way. He cannot be said, as a rule, to fight with other dogs. He bites them and passes on, but does not go out of his way very much to attack them.

His main object seems to be to keep moving, as if to escape something. The dumb variety is characterised by progressive paralysis of the lower jaw, change in character of bark, and marked nervousness.

The animal may appear very affectionate, but may bite without warning. Death usually results in from three to six days from the onset of sickness.

What to do with a suspected animal.—When an animal is suspected of having this disease it should be captured at once, if possible, and securely confined.

A veterinary surgeon should be called to see the dog, or the circumstance should be reported to the nearest police station where they will arrange without payment for the transfer of the dog to the observation kennel under the care of the commissioner of public health.

Dogs suspected of rabies should, if possible, be captured alive; but they may be killed, if danger of any person being bitten can thereby be avoided.

The reason being that if preserved alive it can be ascertained in a day or two whether the animal has rabies while if killed it usually takes fourteen days to find out.

When other dogs have been bitten by a rabid dog they should either be killed immediately or handed over to the charge of a veterinary surgeon.

What to do when bitten.—The bite of any animal should be cleaned throughout its depth and cauterised as soon as possible by a doctor.

The person bitten should come to the commissioner of public health to see if Pasteur treatment is necessary.

It is absolutely necessary for persons bitten by rabid animals or animals suspected of rabies to have the Pasteur treatment.

This is given at the Municipal Health Office and takes about three weeks. The fee for Pasteur treatment is Tls. 50, reducible in case of necessity.

"SHOULD A WOMAN TELL?"

"Thrift is common sense applied to spending"

Thrift does not mean that you must have a throttle-hold on your pocketbook. It does not mean that you must forego all pleasures and luxury, for luxury within bounds is as necessary to the soul as food is to the body.

Luxury brings with it a love of the beautiful, which all highly developed people must have.

Thrift means rather an appreciation of values—getting the most for every dollar you spend.

MANY VILLAGES MELT INTO MUD AND DISAPPEAR

8,000 Square Miles Of Land Flooded So No Crops Can Be Planted

(China Press Correspondence)

Pengpu, Sept. 26.—A full month has passed since the typhoons broke the dykes of the Hwai River, flooding 8,000 square miles of country and for a time putting out of commission the Tientsin-Pukow Railway where it runs through the flooded area. Two weeks ago we rode through the country.

The train had to pass at a snail's pace for the engineers had had to shift the track from side to side wherever they could find a solid portion of the railroad embankment capable of sustaining the weight of the passing trains. The engineer in charge said that careful estimates showed that it will take five train loads of rock ballast with trains running daily for two months to supply enough to put the track into normal condition.

We have just returned through the flood country. The water has scarcely fallen in these two weeks, perhaps a foot or two at the most. Many fields about Nanhsuchow are still soggy and not in shape to plow for fall planting. This area was flooded from the old Yellow River country.

The town of Kuchen is still separated from the railroad by a wide stretch of water. From Sinchiao to Pengpu the country is one great sea. Whole villages have simply melted down and disappeared.

From Mentaitse to Linhwaikwan numerous valleys are flooded and at the latter place hundreds of houses stand submerged up to the top of the doors. Occasional bodies can still be seen bleaching by the railroad embankment.

The engineer has been able to build up the embankment north of Pengpu and straighten most of the track. There are a few places near Mentaitse which will be in shape in a few days. The trains are being handled in such an efficient way that while they must run slowly over the affected area, they still arrive at their destination practically on schedule time.

HOME TERMINAL OF THE IMPERIAL WIRELESS TESTED

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 27.—The Leafield wireless station in Oxfordshire—the British end of the Imperial wireless chain—has undergone searching tests with entirely satisfactory results and it will begin regular work on October 1.

The Cairo station, the next link in the chain, will be completed before the end of the year.

It is intended to push on the Imperial wireless scheme as quickly as possible. Experts are expected to produce plans for other stations in November. When these have been approved orders for eight or ten stations will be placed without delay.

Probably over £200,000 will be spent on the engineering plant in this connection in the next financial year mostly in Great Britain, thus helping to relieve unemployment.

Uncle Sam Almost Loses A Door Mat

Koo Dzang-fah was in a hurry, looking neither to right or left as he trotted down Peking Road last night and he appeared altogether nonplussed when Chinese Constable No. 1232 halted him and he continued to voice his surprise as he was marched to Central Police Station.

Under the lights of the station charge room it was to be seen that, lacking any vestige of a nether garment, Koo Dzang-fah had achieved a quaint Scottish-Oriental kilt-like effect with a scant section of burlap girded about his loins. The Scot behind the desk regarded this garb darkly. It was a door mat he was carrying under his arm, the arresting officer explained and inquiry developed that this had been taken from the American Consulate.

The captive pointed to the faded word 'welcome' on the mat and asserted that it had been thrown away—on the floor just outside of a doorway—so he had taken it. And then they locked him up.

She had always been a very bad sailor. As a precaution she was given two capsules of 'KIRBY'S SEA-SICK CURE' immediately she went on board. We got into rough water shortly before midnight, but Lady——had an undisturbed night's rest. She took one capsule half-an-hour before dressing. She had breakfast in the dining hall, and assured me she had no sensation of nausea or sickness. Although we had rough weather for five days, and at other periods of the voyage, she was not sea-sick. There was no nausea of any kind, and the remedy produced no after-effects."

TOUSSAINT AND CANAVARRO DEFEAT TANAKA AND OKADA FOR YEAR'S DOUBLES TITLE

Take Championship Easily In Three Straight Sets: 6-4, 6-2, 6-4

The finals of the Shanghai lawn tennis doubles championship were played yesterday afternoon on the courts of the Shanghai Recreation Club before a gallery of five hundred interested spectators. Messrs. Toussaint and Canavarro, last year's champions, again captured the title by defeating Messrs. Tanaka and Okada in three straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

As a tennis final the play was as disappointing as the finals of the doubles proved to be last year when Tanaka, partnered with Wade, went down in straight sets before the same winners. The Japanese were erratic, and Tanaka was particularly wild. The Japanese pair had won the Hong Doubles Championship earlier in the season and while nobody expected them to win yesterday afternoon, it was hoped that a better brand of tennis would be seen than that to which the spectators were actually treated.

Okada was conceded to be the weakest of the quartette, and the match showed that he was out of his class. He played pluckily, but time and again he fell down on an easy shot or allowed himself to be maneuvered out of position by his cleverer opponents. His service was the best part of his game, and he dropped fewer services than his partner.

Tanaka, who is never a doubles player at best, was decidedly out of form. He killed well, but only in spots. The same can be said of his driving. He played in the right court from which he could not make the best use of his chief stroke, a powerful backhand drive. Only once during the entire match did he attempt a drive off his backhand and then he scored an ace. The rest of the time he lobbed off his backhand.

Canavarro played his usual brilliant game, but he was not consistently good as he was in the match against Pott and Roberts. He made some of his usual phenomenally quick returns, and was often severe overhead. But here he wasted more points than is his habit.

Of the four players Toussaint was unquestionably the best. He played in masterly fashion throughout and has seldom given a better account of himself. His forehand was working better than usual, and his net play and sure overhead work left little to be desired.

The whole match took only one hour and five minutes to finish which shows the decisive manner in which Toussaint and Canavarro took their opponents into camp.

FIRST SET

Tanaka opened the play by serving, and errors by the Japanese couple lost them the first game. They promptly came back, however, and took Canavarro's service with the assistance of the latter's errors overhead. Okada won a love game, and it looked like the Japanese were going to make a strong bid for the set. But this was the only time in the entire match when they had the lead. Bad lobbing lost them the next game. Tanaka again lost his service through a double fault and some excellent driving by Toussaint. From this point on each player won his service with the result that Toussaint and his partner ran the set out at 6-4. There was very little good play in this set, and three love games show how uncertain the play actually was.

SECOND SET

Okada took up the service and won the first game. Canavarro took a love game on his serve through his opponents' wildness. Tanaka again double-faulted, but retrieved himself by good work and pulled out a long deuce game. This game provided the best tennis of the afternoon. Toussaint then brought the score to two-all with a love game. He and his

SHANGHAI DIVIDES HONORS WITH HONGKONG IN FIRST DAY OF INTERPORT SWIM

Siemssen Retires From 880 Yard Race; MacCabe Wins Ball Throwing Event

Shanghai broke even yesterday in the two events on the first day's program of the interport swimming contests at Hongkong, losing the Half Mile swim, and winning the Throwing the Ball contest.

John J. Johnstone of Hongkong, the all-round sportsman, well known in Shanghai as a jockey won the swim, with Mr. G. Jack second. Only two men finished. Shanghai's promising youngster, E. A. S. Siemssen, started in the race, but retired at 640 yards. The telegrams received last night do not say why. The time for the race was 12:57 2-5. A Reuter's telegram adds that Remedios also started but does not explain his performance.

The second event, the Throwing the Ball contest went to Shanghai with MacCabe's long heave of 74 feet. E. Busschaert of Hongkong was second with 64 feet and 4 inches. The two events leaves the score at the end of the first day at Hongkong 7 points, Shanghai 3.

Johnstone's win of the half mile event is not surprising to Shanghai followers of swimming, for he is the strongest all-round contender on the Hongkong team, while neither Siemssen nor Remedios have worked much on the 880-yard distance. They both will do better at the shorter distances.

MacCabe's win of the Throwing the Ball contest shows that that veteran retains his old knack at heaving the ball. He made less distance than 65 feet in trials in Shanghai, but that undoubtedly was due to the indoor trials with low roof rafters. The throw at Hongkong was in the open.

Today's program includes the 220-yard swim and the long plunge. Siemssen, Tordy and Brodie are available for the swimming event, and as the distance is more to their liking, Shanghai should register a few points on the event. MacCabe will likely represent Shanghai in the Long Plunge.

American Cricket Team Wins Victory Over Royal Navy

Chatham, England, Aug. 20.—The Philadelphia Pilgrims cricket team beat the Royal Navy team today by six wickets, J. M. Crossman of the American team scoring 92 runs, including 15 fours. The best bowling was by W. T. O'Neill of the Philadelphians, who took seven wickets for 61 runs. The first innings of the match were played Friday, when the Royal Navy team, which batted first, was all out for 187 runs. The Philadelphians completed their first innings with 200 runs.

TIENTSIN MEETS PEKING AT POLO NEXT SATURDAY

Capital Team Meets Former Gov. Forbes' Four In Practice Match

Peking, September 21.—The Peking Polo Club will defend the Interport Polo Cup against a strong Tientsin four on October 1. The match will be played at the local polo ground on the French Glacis and is expected to be attended by a large crowd, as there is already much local interest in its outcome.

Peking will be represented by Mr. R. C. Allen, who will captain the side and play back, and Lieutenant Colonel Smallwood. Captain Munton and Mr. Newbigging. Likely reserve players for Peking are Mr. S. F. Mayers and Major Philoon, both of whom are almost, if not quite, as good as the regular members of the team.

Followers of polo in North China incline to the belief that the Peking four is the best ever got together in this country and that Tientsin will have to play remarkable polo to win. Every man on the Peking team is a hard rider and a long, accurate hitter, and the team has had sufficient practice as a unit to play very well together.

An accurate estimate of just what Peking is capable of can probably be formed on Sunday afternoon, when the local four will in all likelihood play a practice match against a four selected by former Governor-General W. Cameron Forbes from the members of the Wood mission. This four be composed of Mr. Forbes, Colonel Johnson, Colonel McCoy and Major Bowditch and is expected to give the Peking men more than a good game.

During the Wood Mission's visit to the Philippines Gov. Forbes' four played most of the regimental teams and was beaten only once, by the 9th Cavalry. In a return match with this team the Forbes four won handsomely. In Hongkong the Forbes four played strong Hongkong side and, riding for the first time on China ponies, was well beaten in a good game, the feature of which was

SHANGHAI LOSES AGAIN TO H'KONG INTERPORT RINK

Beat Police And Craigengower But Lose Second Match To First Team

Details of Shanghai interport bowlers' last three games on the Hongkong tour received yesterday show the visiting players winning over the Police, the Craigengower Club, and finally losing for the second time to the Hongkong Interport team.

The match with the Police ended in an up-hill finish with the Shanghai rink taking the last eight heads for 10 and running out by a narrow margined win of 1 point, for a score of 16-15.

The teams were as under:

Shanghai: Tweedlie, Marks, McAlister and Shaw.

Police: Knight, Cooper, Robertson and Clark.

Shanghai took the first head for 3, the Police replied with 2 in the second. Some fine drawing was witnessed in the next two, both of which went to the Police for 1 and 2 respectively. In the fifth head Shanghai made two and the Police led by only one point. The next three heads yielded the Police four points and the scores were doubled, 10-5 in their favor.

Shanghai made one point in the ninth and then the Police again ran way. They took 4 heads consecutively for 5 and led comfortably by 15-6. Just as a win for the Police seemed certain, Shanghai made a fine recovery and giving their opponents no chances took all the remaining eight heads for 10 and ran out winners by the narrow margin of one point. It was a very exciting close and the visitors were enthusiastically applauded for their performance.

The win over Craigengower by the score of 17-14 was keenly contested and full of interest.

The teams lined up as follows:

Shanghai: Brown, Landers, Shaw and McAlister.

Craigengower: Omar, Allan, Basa and Bradbury.

The second interport match had a final score of 25-16 in favor of Hongkong. The teams were the same as met in the first interport match, with the exception that Tweedlie replaced Marks:

Shanghai: Tweedlie, Landers, McAlister and Shaw.

Hongkong: Clark, Cerrard, Hamilton and Ferguson.

There was very little in the game until the eighth head when Shanghai ran away with a couple of threes in succession making the score 11-6 in their favor. Then for seven heads Hongkong did all the scoring, running their total up to 16. At the nineteenth they were six shots to the good. Blundering badly at the twentieth, Shaw, the Shanghai skip, made victory certain for Hongkong by giving them a five. Shanghai won the last end by 2, leaving Hongkong winners by 25 points to 16.

Hamilton, Hongkong's No. 3, was the best player on the green. There was real class in everything he did. His opponent McAlister did well but was unable to hold the Hongkong man. The skips were about on a par, with Shaw playing a consistently good game until the 20th head, when in trying to save he sent up a couple of bad shots which gave Hongkong the game. Gerrard was slightly better than Landers at No. 2, and Clark, although appearing to be again troubled with back handers, gave nothing away to Tweedlie.

They are held to be the best tournament pair in Shanghai.

U. S. AND BRITAIN PLAY FOR ROPER CUP ON SATURDAY

Pott-Roberts Oppose Wade-Mansel-Smith At The Country Club

The doubles match between Great Britain and the United States will be played, as announced before, on the courts of the British Country Club on Saturday, Oct. 1, at 3:30 p.m. The United States will be represented by Messrs. Pott and Roberts and Great Britain by Messrs. Wade and Mansel-Smith. Some excellent tennis should be seen.

Roberts and Wade are both in fine form. Both Mansel-Smith and Pott have been in somewhat poor physical condition, but they should be in good trim again by Saturday, and from the playing style of all four plapers exciting tennis may be expected.

The Roper Cup Match is to be an annual fixture under the auspices of the Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association, and the trophy has been named after a well-known former American resident of Shanghai, who had many friends in both the British and American sporting community.

"My wife has suffered very badly for the past four or five years with Piles, being unable to sleep at night or get any relief during the day. She tried several advertised remedies, none of which did her any good. Some three weeks ago she thought she would try 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and before she had taken half a bottle she was better, and by the time she had finished the second bottle she was quite cured. She can now sleep well, eat well, and get about her work, and her general health is better than it has been for years." In a further letter some eight months later Mr. Woodrow writes: "I am pleased to say that since my wife's cure of Piles in September, 1918, there has been no sign of return of the trouble."

Shanghai College Has Record Enrollment; Co-Education Approved

At a reception given by the ladies of the faculty of Shanghai College to the students tea was served to over 400 young men and ten young women who now form the student body of Shanghai College.

The enrollment in the college department is particularly heavy and exceeds by 30 percent that of last year, which was then the record.

President White told the students about his trip to America during the summer, how he had succeeded in arousing the sympathy of the people in the churches in the Northern, Southern and Western sections of the United States, and in that way had set things in motion to get money for the College. He told also about the new additions which he had secured to the teaching staff, particularly Mr. and Mrs. Wiley for the Sociology Department.

Shanghai College was well advertised at the great Convention of Northern Baptists held at Des Moines at which 2,500 delegates were present. A model of the College Campus, with miniatures of the buildings painted in their actual colors, and in addition, a large number of proposed and much needed buildings unpainted, was on exhibition at the Convention and attracted the attention of crowds of people.

EXPECT $500,000

The Southern Baptist Board has just voted $100,000 (Mex) for improvements on the Campus, and has promised $400,000 additional as soon as funds can be secured. This Board has also appointed two new professors and their wives, besides two short term teachers of English.

The thing which needed Dr. White's presence in America most of all was coeducation. After having converted everybody in China to coeducation, so much so that several other colleges are adopting it or thinking of adopting it soon, Dr. White found that there was a strong and a persisten minority in America quite opposed to the whole idea. One lady of high ecclesiastical authority asserted that the Chinese people do not want coeducation, stating that Chinese students in America had said so.

One of Shanghai College graduates now studying in America, wrote to 50 representative Chinese students in America, asking them their opinion. Of the replies received only one was opposed to coeducation.

At the first meeting of the Board of Trustees held in America some members were not enthusiastic in the matter and it was laid on the table. In the second meeting after due consideration coeducation for Shanghai College received hearty approval. The matter was referred to the Boards of the Foreign Missionary Societies both North and South, but it was not till a few days ago that a cable came announcing that all the Boards and Societies concerned, including the Women's Societies, had approved coeducation.

This assures the $50,000 gold for the new Woman's Building, promised some months ago but withheld pending the decision on this question.

LACK OF WORK NOT FAULT OF GOVT. SAYS MOND

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 27.—Sir Alfred Mond in addressing press representatives at the Ministry of Health declared that unemployment was due to causes over which the Government had no control.

They must, he said, try to stabilise foreign exchanges so that British foreign trade might improve. The cost of production must be reduced. He was glad to say that there seemed to be some indication of more confidence on the part of purchasers and more orders were being received.

Unemployment insurance had been a big weapon in dealing with the situation, Sir Alfred continued. It was hoped to extend its scope by the Government advancing £20,000,000 to the Unemployment Insurance Fund. The position was serious, he concluded, but he was by no means pessimistic.

MEXICAN COURT FAVORS OIL CO. IN NEW DECISION

(Reuter's Service)

Mexico City, Sept. 27.—An important decision, affecting the ownership of Mexican oilfields has been given in the Supreme Court in an injunction suit by the Texas Oil Company in regard to oil lands which it held before May 1, 1917.

The Company pleaded that if the Government, under Article 27 of the Constitution, denounced the Company's rights to these lands it would be violating Article 14, which provides that no law shall be made retrospective.

The Court's decision definitely establishes that Article 27 is not retrospective as far as it concerns property acquired for oil exploration or exploitation prior to the present constitution becoming effective.

Justice Moreno, in reading the decision, said it should establish a principle of law on which other pending injunction suits should be adjudicated.

partner promptly ran off the next four games and set at 6-2.

THIRD SET

Okada again began the service, but double-faulted. This combined with errors at the net by both himself and partner gave the first game to Toussaint and Canavarro. Canavarro had another of his uncertain smashing spells and allowed his opponents to break through. The next game furnished some good rallies and fell to Toussaint. Tanaka captured his service and then the Japanese lost three straight. With the score 5-2 against them, the Japanese made a valiant effort to stave off defeat. Canavarro with victory in sight became over-anxious, and lost Toussaint's serve for him by three wild kills at the net. The Japanese annexed this game and the next with the loss of only one point. But Canavarro made sure of his last serve, and the match at 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

MOBILE TROOPS IN ISLANDS TO HAVE NEW HEAD

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Sept. 15 (by mail).—Major-General William G. Haan is to be assigned to command the mobile troops in the Philippines, according to information recently received here. Major-General F. J. Kernan, the present Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in the Philippines, however will continue in supreme command, it is stated, having been granted permission by the War Department to spend an additional year here.

General Haan, who is junior to General Kernan, commanded the Seventh Army Corps in France, and has been in charge of the war plans division of the War College in Washington.

The appointment of General Haan to command mobile forces here is said to be a part of the War Department policy of assigning separate commanders to the mobile forces in the insular possessions. Brigadier-General Kuhn occupies a similar position in Hawaii, where Major-General Summeral is Department Commander.

Sir Robert Ho Tung Honored In Peking

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 27.—Sir Robert Ho Tung, who is returning to Hongkong tomorrow, received a special audience of the President this morning in which President Hsu spoke in the highest terms of Sir Robert's keen interest in China and Chinese affairs and his fine work in aiding and promoting Chinese industries and expressed the hope that Sir Robert would soon return to Peking.

This afternoon Sir Robert received the appointment of Honorary Adviser to the President of the Chinese Republic, and the appointment of Honorary Adviser to the Chinese delegation to Washington.

These two tributes mark the high esteem in which Sir Robert is held by the Presidency and the Waichiaopu, and which is shared by all departments and circles in Peking.

the improvement in the play of the Americans after they got used to their mounts.

So Peking will have a regular polo treat on Sunday afternoon if the game between the locals and the American Mission team can be arranged. And Peking will be severely tested in addition to getting some valuable practice for the Tientsin Interport match.

ONE TROUBLE AFTER ANOTHER.

"Misfortunes never come singly", says the old adage, and few can say that they have never found this to be true. In the case of Mr. P. B. D. Ratnaika, employed on the Ingiriya Tea Estate, at Matale, Ceylon, malaria was the original trouble and rheumatism followed after. It was not until he drove the rheumatic poison out of his blood by the use of Dr. Williams' pink pills that he found permanent cure. Here are the facts as related by Mr. Ratnaika when seen at his home, 451 Rattota Road, Matale, a while ago.

"Malarial fever pulled me down so greatly that I became a victim to rheumatism which caused me great suffering for one and a half years", said he. "My joints swelled horribly, and I suffered intense pain in them, also around my waist and in my right hand. So weak and helpless did I eventually become that I could not stand on my legs and was obliged to take to my bed for six months.

"Nothing prescribed benefited me and I began to despair of recovery. But one day I was led to try Dr. Williams' pink pills. Then the pains perceptibly lessened day by day. The swelling left my joints, and headaches which had been among my symptoms ceased. By the time that I had finished five bottles of Dr. Williams' pink pills I found myself completely cured. Since then I have kept in excellent health."

Malaria so impoverishes the blood and undermines the system that sufferers from it often fall victim to other maladies as well, chief of which are rheumatism, gout, lumbago and sciatica, also digestive troubles. In all such cases Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people, the famous blood and nerve tonic, are of the utmost value. They are obtainable from medicine vendors everywhere, also post free at $1.50 the bottle, $8 for six bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Filipino Dabbling In Many Industries Ties Up Assets

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Sept. 15 (by mail).—A synopsis of the report of Mr. John F. Forbes, San Francisco accountant and member of the firm of Haskins and Sells, who has been conducting an examination of Philippine finances, was published recently in Manila. According to Mr. Forbes, the islands are far from insolvent, but are seriously embarrassed by the government policy of dabbling in business. Mr. Forbes says:

"Under Governor Harrison the country was virtually turned over to the Filipinos for management. The Filipinos were permitted under the provisions of the Jones bill to have two houses of the legislature, and Governor Harrison encouraged the replacement of Americans in the government by Filipinos.

"The Filipinos entered upon a scheme of putting the government into business. They sunk money into a national bank and put enormous sums into a government railroad and coal mines. They attempted to corner the hemp market, and put large sums into the manufacture of cement.

STUDY GOV'T ASSETS

"The result was that the finances of the country were in such shape that none knew where the country stood financially. Our firm has been making a study of all these properties, with the idea of giving the Wood-Forbes mission information as to the exact financial status of the islands.

"Having all these assets tied up in these non-liquid enterprises, the Filipino government was without funds, and asked the United States government to increase its borrowing capacity. The country is solvent and probably never will be insolvent, because it can always increase taxation, and the islands have virtually a monopoly of hemp and certain kinds of tobacco, with a tremendous output of sugar and cocoanut products, including copra and cocoanut oil.

"It could only become insolvent when its expenses exceeded the total income of the people, which of course is practically an impossibility."

Churchill Has Plan To Increase Trade

Electricity Department Tell Why Lights Went Out

The following is the announcement made by the Electricity Department explaining the breakdown on Tuesday night.

The recent failure of the electricity supply throughout the greater part of the area of supply, was caused by the carelessness of a workman at the Riverside Power Station. In order to complete the construction of some new switchgear, men were working late in the new switch house. In this switch house there is one section which is used for the control switch of one of the 18,000 K. W. turbo-generators.

To protect individuals from coming in contact with high pressure apparatus, protective doors are fixed in front of the switch cubicles, and these are so arranged that it is absolutely impossible for anyone to come in contact with live apparatus unless they wilfully open the doors.

In spite of a notice and repeated warnings, however, a workman last night opened one of these doors and placed his hand inside the switch cell, thus coming in contact with a portion of the switchgear carrying a pressure of 6,600 volts.

The man was not badly injured, but his hand coming in contact with a charged part of the switchgear established a connection between the switchgear and ground, thus causing a flash over on the generator switch.

All the generators are protected by automatic apparatus designed to open the switch and isolate the generator in case of short circuits or other phenomena which may occur. The object of this automatic device is to protect the generators from undue stress and damage.

At the time of the accident the two 18,000 K. W. machines were supplying the bulk of the Riverside output, consequently, when the first machine automatically switched out the second one had to carry practically the whole load, whereupon its protective apparatus came into play and automatically cut that machine off also, thus saving it from damage.

The delay in restoring the service was not due to any serious damage at the Power Station, but to the time required to re-start the auxiliary motors driving the circulating water and air pumps, as there was no current available in the Pump House after the two large generators were switched out.

The plans for the Riverside Power House Extensions include separate house turbines for supplying power to all the auxiliary plant in the Power House, so that in the event of an interruption to the main supply, the auxiliaries will be kept working from the house service plant.

By this means a shut down such as took place Tuesday night would be probably of only a few minutes duration.

The accident would not have occurred under normal circumstances, but in order to get new and heavier type switchgear in operation as early as possible, a number of men were working overtime.

When once this construction work is finished the switch house, in accordance with the practice adopted in the other switch house at Riverside, will be locked up, and none but authorised persons allowed admittance.

The department is working against odds in trying to make up for the delays, caused by the war in the delivery of overdue plant.

Unfortunately, a second interruption, not to the whole supply, but affecting a limited area of the Settlement, occurred again at about 11 o'clock, but this was due to the breakdown of a cable supplied from Fearon Road Station.

Upon closing the switch controlling this cable, the switch itself exploded, and caused Riverside and Fearon Road Stations to become separated.

At the time, most of the supply was being derived from the Riverside Station, and until the faulty switch could be cleared, it was impossible to re-connect the two stations. In the meantime, however, a considerable supply was given from Fearon Road, while a very much larger supply throughout the greater part of the department's system was maintained uninterrupted by from Riverside.

The switchgear at Fearon Road which broke down is of an old pattern and is not considered sufficiently heavy for absolutely safe operation under the conditions now obtaining, but here again the department is suffering from delayed deliveries of new switchgear which was ordered a long time ago to replace the older Fearon Road switchgear.

The demand for electricity, as is well known, has grown quicker than it has been possible to install larger apparatus to keep up with it, and although measures were taken some few years ago in anticipation of these conditions, the War and its after effects have been responsible for the delayed deliveries of new plant.

With the completion of the new scheme at Riverside, and the putting into service of heavier switchgear at the new Switch House which is being built at Fearon Road, occurrences such as that which took place Tuesday night will be almost impossible.

Last night the lights in several districts of the Settlement were again out, the interruption lasting for about 15 minutes. It was impossible to obtain information as to the cause of the second failure of the Municipal Plant in as many nights.

AD CLUB OUTING NEXT SATURDAY

The Advertising Club will hold its regular quarterly outing Saturday when the members and their friends will be the guests of the British-American Tobacco Company at the Pan Song Yuen Gardens.

Arrangements have been made to convey several hundred guests by boat up the Whangpoo River in the early afternoon to return in time for dinner in the evening. At the Gardens, an attractive program of entertainment has been arranged.

The boats will leave the Peking Road jetty at 2.30 p.m. and should make the trip up the river in something like a half hour. Returning the boats will leave at 7 o'clock and are expected to arrive back to the Bund by 7.30.

Special decorations have been planned for the Gardens and the various halls, the gardens and waterways will be the scene of a gay assemblage. Outdoor sports for special prizes will take place on the lawns and following this there will be dancing, motion pictures and refreshments.

There is no charge for the tickets and members can secure them by applying to Mr. J. A. Dissmeyer of the British-American Tobacco Company, Museum and Soochow Roads.

Each member is entitled to two and should there be any available after the first allotment, the balance will be distributed to those sending in their request. It is particularly hoped that there will be a number of ladies present to make the dancing a success.

Native Indian Rulers To Show Prince Of Wales 'Good Time'

BY UNIVERSAL SERVICE

London, Aug. 3.—The visit of the Prince of Wales to India in November will be in accordance with the precedent established in the case of King Edward and King George V. when heirs to the throne.

Although the program of the tour is not yet complete, it may be the Duke of Connaught's recent visit, that social rather than political engagements will preponderate.

Canada, America and Australia, which have been visited by the Prince, have their own particular attractions, but in none of them is it possible to entertain the heir to the throne on a scale so varied as in India, for no hospitality can compare with that of the princes of India, no splendor equal the gorgeous ceremonial of the East. This is certain to be displayed in all its glory for the edification of the Prince of Wales, both by the Government of India and the rulers of native States, by whom entertaining has been reduced to a fine art.

WILL GO TIGER-HUNTING

It is highly probable there will be "shikar" in the Nepal tarai, which abounds with tiger and every species of game. This involves a "bundebast" of a magnitude of which the man in the street has no conception—the gathering of a small army of highly trained elephants, camp equipment which will transform the jungle dwelling into a miniature hotel, and the isolation of a selected area, miles in extent, to ensure a successful bag.

There will be an abundance of sport, both big and feathered game, for the Prince. Bikaner State, for instance, which is almost certain to be honored with a visit, offers the finest sand-grouse shooting in the world. Although this is a place where the draw for butts is famous for its propriety, there are so many birds in the Gumer oasis that a bag of 2,000 head for twenty guns is by no means infrequent.

It will also be in the native States that the Prince will witness the real Indian nautch. The majority of the ruling chiefs retain professional dancers for performing during State shows. On these occasions the dancers, often a hundred in number, wear richly variegated and be-jewelled clothing, and dance in crescent formation to the music of quaint instruments against a back-ground of glittering and many-colored luminations.

DURBAR TO BE HELD

These performances are regarded as State functions, and full dress is worn. On such occasions, which are invariably preceded by a State banquet, the Indian princes wear jewels of such fabulous worth as would fill with envious awe the whole fraternity of Hatton Garden.

Christmas week is almost certain to be spent in Calcutta, where the races for the King-Emperor's Cup and the Viceroy's Cup will be run. December 23 to January 2 is a lively period for every one in Calcutta. This year, with the Prince among them, it will be infinitely more so.

Interested parties may like to associate the possibility of political "boons" with the Prince's visit, but with the new reforms scheme just inaugurated few boons could be conferred.

30 Drowned When Launch Capsises

(China Press Correspondence)

Kaying, Sept. 17.—Thirty people were drowned near here yesterday on the Moy River as a result of the capsising of a launch. Most of the victims were business men returning from abroad to visit their homes.

Because of heavy traffic the boat was loaded beyond the point of safety, with the result that it overturned suddenly giving the occupants little time to escape from the ill-fated craft.

It is reported that several river junks stood by and saved a number of lives, but many had already perished before they arrived on the scene.

EX-TUCHUN ARRIVES

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 25.—General Chiang Kwei-ti, former Tutung of Jehol, arrived in Peking yesterday evening and went to his own residence in Tsuaihua Hutung, where he will reside.

Although General Chiang has expressed the desire to be relieved of the new post of Inspector General the Government is making arrangements for a yamen for him either in the offices of the General Staff or at the Chiangchunfu.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries twenty-two per cent. or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

UNION CHURCH LADIES SOCIETY HAS GARDEN FETE

More than one hundred members of the Ladies' Society of the Union Church attended a garden party at the home of Mrs. W. O. Opwin, 22 Ford Lane, yesterday afternoon. The garden party marked the opening affair of season for the society and in the absence of Mrs. Rowland, chairman, Mrs. Viloudaki, vice-chairman, was in charge.

Tea was served by the hostess, the officers of the society and members of the tea committee, after which a musical program was given under the direction of Mrs. C. Barnham.

A feature of interest was the reading of a letter from Dr. Darwent of Tientsin to the society. At the garden party last May, held at the Institution for the Blind, the society drafted a letter which was mailed to the former pastor of Union Church. The letter read today was in reply.

The Ladies' Society will meet every Wednesday afternoon at the Union Church at 3 o'clock when programs of interest will be presented.

Mr. T. E. Doremus was elected president of the Columbia Country Club at a meeting of the Board of Governors held yesterday at noon. Mr. Carl Crow was chosen as vice president and Messrs. C. W. Atkinson and R. Deming were elected as additional members of the Board of Governors.

Historic Wool Sales

Unprecedented interest was taken by wool buyers and the public in Melbourne sales, beginning May 10 1921. The occasion was the first time in the history of Australia that wool was auctioned at a minimum reserve fixed by the Government, and the result dissipated "a mountain" of dismal predictions as to certain failure of the sales.

There was an initial hitch, the Victorian Buyers' Association protesting against export restriction and a minimum reserve, but a clear explanation by Sir John Higgins in conference with disgruntled buyers, and an assurance that export would certainly not be restricted if sales were not below the reserve swept all difficulties aside, and restored confidence. The results smothered all petulant and abusive criticism.

Bidding was extremely keen, and ninety percent of the large offering of 8,000 bales was sold at satisfactory prices. The top price for greasy wool was 17½d. for scoured 22½d.

As compared with closing rates in Melbourne on March 23, prices for good merinoes and crossbreds averaged 10 percent higher, others from 5 to 10 percent higher.

Sales on succeeding days were also highly successful.

Over twelve thousand bales of greasy wool, mostly merino, were offered at the Sydney sales on Thursday May 12.

Competition was particularly keen, especially for superior wools, Japanese, Yorkshire, and local buyers being exceptionally active.

Japan secured most of the highest priced clips at following prices 22¼d., 22¼d., 22½d., 23¾d., 24d., 25¼d., 27¼d., and 28½d.

Clearances exceeded all expectations.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending yesterday:

Exchange:—The London price of silver at 43⅜d. shows a rise of 3½d. since last week. We understand that the Indian Bazaars have both bought and sold during the week, and the rise is due to purchases by China against speculative sales of Gold T.T. in Shanghai by our Gold dealers and the Dairen Merchants. General business has been dull, but today a good demand for Gold T.T. came out and was met at 4/3 to September, 4/2½, October 4/1½ to January weakening later to the extent of 1d. for the forward deliveries.

Our official quotation has remained unchanged, probably on account of the absence of Export bills and the poor prospects for the future of Exports. The Gold dealers have been quiet today and without cover from them the Banks at the close show a disinclination to sell at the high level which has ruled throughout the week. Further arrivals of silver are expected.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver Tls. 24,547,000, a decline of Tls. 1,070,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars $23,650,000, a decline of $1,210,000.

Estimated value in Tls. 41,570,000 as against Tls. 53,100,000 held at this time last year.

The Rockefeller Inspiration To Chinese Merchants And Young Men

By Francis Zia

COMING at a time when idealism is waging a strenuous war against materialism in this country, the inspirational value of the visit of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., cannot be too strongly emphasised. As a monument to that philanthropic spirit which supplies the backbone of America's commercial and industrial greatness, the Peking Union Medical College, founded with Rockefeller funds, will always furnish uplifting thought to the thinking population of China. But since Mr. Rockefeller, Jr., was yesterday a guest of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce and will address a packed house of Chinese youths at the Chinese Young Men's Christian Association this evening, it is perhaps excusable to refer to Rockefeller inspiration in its application to the lives of Chinese merchants and young men.

In China too much capital has been made out of the superstitious belief in the cold bondage of fate and the complaint of hard luck has often served as an excuse for patent lack of initiative and enterprise. The life of John D. Rockefeller, Sr., will show not only to Occidentals but also to Orientals that vision, industry, thrift, a well-balanced mind, and a stout heart will as surely unlock the gates of the Kingdom of Happiness and Helpfulness as it is sure that day follows night.

Animated by the earnest desire to provide for his mother and brother, Rockefeller in the early fifties gave up his studies after spending two years in picking up the fundamentals of a primary school education. His first job was that of a bill clerk in the freight docks in Cleveland. On account of his systematic savings and wise investments he found that his small capital had soon grown into the sum of ten thousand dollars and this was before he was twenty-five years old. Then with a co-partner named Hewett he started a warehouse and produce business of his own in order to utilise the experience gained in the freight docks. In five years he amassed about ten thousand dollars and had acquired so great a reputation for business capacity and probity that when the Cleveland bankers became aware he was interested in petroleum they were willing to give him financial assistance to the extent of seven and a half times the then worth of Rockefeller himself and agreed to invest on his recommendation forty times the amount of his own capital.

In those days people were reluctant to discard their candles and sperm oil in favor of petroleum which, on account of its inflammable gases, was considered a dangerous illuminant. Rockefeller, however, believed that there were means and ways of removing both the gases and the objectionable odor and started a series of experiments. His efforts were abundantly rewarded. When 1870 came, Mr. Rockefeller, then in his 32nd year, saw the formation of the Standard Oil Company of New York, which was capitalised at one million dollars.

The phenomenal growth of the business has become proverbial in both hemispheres and its unrivalled assets will at all times bear testimony to the value of an idea of better service to humanity, tenaciously held and persistently developed.

"Every young man," said Rockefeller, "should take care of his money. I think it is a man's duty to make all the money he can, keep all the money he can, and give away all he can. I have followed this principle religiously all my life."

In Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., we have a typical example of the real money king who is not mastered but is the master of his earthly riches in order by its means to lay up treasures in the 100 per cent safe bank in Heaven. It is said that the efforts which accompany the keeping of a great fortune are even more exacting than those required for its creation but this was a saying in a period when the ideal of philanthropy of an international character did not appeal to heirs of millionaires. In Mr. Rockefeller Jr.'s striking personality lies ample guarantee that he will hardly be beaten by his father in the use of material wealth for the betterment and uplift of humanity.

The complete story of his industrial achievements remains to be told, but in view of his financial resources and the fact that he is keeping up his father's policy—his presence in China is a proof that he does so—of getting work done by competent heads and hands, it is safe to predict that the solid foundation and determined policy of Socony now in evidence here and elsewhere in this troubled world will stand the acid test of time.

And from this father and this son our merchants and their sons have indeed very much to learn and a wonderful example to follow, if only they will.

TA-TA TO THE SEASON

Ta-ta to the season! 'Tis over!
The heat and mosquitoes are done;
And back comes each holiday rover
From Tsingtao, Japan and the Sun.
Ta-ta to the season! Another
Will come with its racket and row,
And vanish away like its brother
But how will it leave us? Ah, how?
Will the tail of Szechuen be salted?
Will Wu Pei-fu win amid cheers?
Will the high cost of living be halted?
Will the Council shut up profiteers?
Will Babe Ruth still improve as a batter?
Will Japan make another faux pas?
Will the Civic League tackle—no matter—
Ta-ta to the season—Ta-ta!

FORTUNATE FOR ALL

One day Sousa played over one of his compositions to a candid friend, and asked for his opinion.

"What do you think of it?" he inquired. "Do you really want to know?" replied the candid friend.

"Of course," said Sousa, and prepared for the worst. And got it.

"Well it reminds me of the days when I played the fiddle for a lunatic asylum audience. The head doctor of the place asked an old fellow what he thought of my playing.

"It's lucky we're all mad here," was the reply.

MUST BE GETTING OLD

Sir: I am just a regular type of girl and used to think I was having a good time, but this is the way I feel after last night:
Nineteen years old and through with the world!
What can life bring to me and my kind,
Cynical, twisted in mind and in soul,
Wearied by knowledge of men and their ways.
If this is all then let me die,
For I am tired and wish to rest.

Am I unusual, or do other girls feel the same way after several years of cabarets and male vamps?—'Chinette' in "A Line O' Type Or Two."

"SHOULD A WOMAN TELL?"

Today By Arthur Brisbane

The elect in heaven, according to Cotton Mather, Puritan preacher, were especially blissful when allowed to contemplate the tortures of the damned below them.

We, in our U. S. A. prohibition heaven, may contemplate with pleasure, or at least consolation, the alcoholic sorrows of our English friends. The Bishop of London publishes in the Morning Post a lament on increasing drunkenness.

Another bishop, of Durham, laments lack of interest in religion. Studying history, the bishop will observe that when men show lack of interest in any particular religion it is usually because that religion has shown a lack of interest in men.

The Bishop says mournfully: "The only movements which attract public sympathy are those which aim at mass betterment."

Is that a calamity? The Bishop knows that the "movement" started by the founder of Christianity was also aimed at "mass-betterment." He said that All men were His brothers, not merely Bishops and Peers of the realm. Mass-betterment was His object, and clergymen making it their object will easily interest the mass in religion.

Have women noticed the most interesting thing about the late Caruso?

He was his mother's nineteenth child.

That mother, a powerful woman such as the Italians, descendants of the Romans, produce in thousands, was not discouraged when she had five children or ten or fifteen or eighteen. She had ONE more, and that was CARUSO.

The real business of a woman, her highest business whatever she may want or believe, is having children. This earth depends on the human race, and there can't be anything more important than the creation of that race.

Women forget that sometimes, and not, satisfied to create the man that does the work, they want to be the man. It is as if Raphael, not satisfied with painting the Sistine Madonna, insisted on climbing up in the frame to be the picture.

Woman may do as she pleases; nobody has the right to lecture or exhort. If she wants no children, that is her business. Few women voluntarily let the chain snap at their link. Two children replacing mother and father should be the minimum, and one day that will be the maximum, when the earth is fully populated.

Many children mean real happiness, and the greater the number the greater the mother's chance of living in history.

You learn from Galton's studies of heredity that among kings, and the very rich, the first child is apt to be the best. In humbler families the later children are the best. The reasons are plain.

When a king marries, it is a novelty. He is interested in his first child. That child is born with all the king's affection and energy back of it. By the time the second arrives, he is tired of the mother and thinking of something else.

Alexander the Great, first child of a great man and an extraordinary woman, was a huge success. Had there been a second it might have been a half idiot, for by that time the mother hated the father and the father was afraid of the mother, who later had him murdered for taking a second wife.

Among humble mortals the later children are the best. As time passes and the husband grows older he recovers from early foolishness. He appreciates the devotion of the mother that has lived with him and stood by him; he becomes more nearly worthy of her, and so she gives him better children. You find this everywhere in history. Only earnest, intense affection produces the best children.

Henry T. Finck, who knows more about music than anybody, except the musical critic of this newspaper, tells you:

"Franz Schubert, the greatest of all song writers, was the fourteenth of fourteen children born to his mother.

"Guiomar Novaes, greatest of woman pianists, was the seventeenth of nineteen children born to her mother; and Caruso was the youngest of nineteen children."

What happiness the world owes to the mothers that created those three great musicians! You can imagine how often those mothers were asked "Why do you have so many children, why aren't you satisfied?"

If Caruso's mother had stopped at eighteen children, or Schubert's mother at thirteen, the loss for the world would have been incalculable.

Letitia Ramolino had every excuse for wanting a small family. With her husband, Carlo, she travelled about Corsica amid wars and unrest. But if she had been content with a small family there never would have been any Napoleon Bonaparte. And the history of the last 125 years would have been different.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. The oftener you try, the better chance you have of a really great success. That applies especially to motherhood.

"No Accident" Week

A visitor to Detroit, that center of American motors, reports a new kind of "week." When he arrived he saw posters everywhere announcing "No Accident Week."

In the streets was a broken-down motor-car, which had been in an accident. Upon it was a poster saying, "This is what we must avoid this week." An appeal was made to all drivers to drive so carefully all the week that not a single accident should take place. And the "week" was a success.

Aristocracy And The Films

There seems no end to aristocratic recruits for the films. Lady Chesham, it is said, is going to act in them, and others credited with being film aspirants are Lord Falkland's heir, the Master of Falkland, and his wife, Mrs. Lucius Cary.

The Master of Falkland entered the Grenadier Guards, and served in the Boer campaign and also in the great war. Some five years ago his wife joined the ranks of society shopkeepers and opened a little establishment at Knightsbridge. The shop was a dream of exquisite taste, and brides rushed off there to get their best gowns, lingerie, and bridal hats.

What God Hath Joined

The bane, trouble and tragedy of the world come from separating things that cannot prosper and be happy unless they are united.

"What God hath joined let no man put asunder," says the Church to the world at the marriage service.

For it is a law of Nature that man and woman only find their highest joy when they loyally cling together, "for better, for worse; for richer, for poorer; till death do them part."

But this same law holds throughout the world of work and thought.

Most of the wretchedness, contention and failure everywhere comes from Divorcing what should be forever one.

For instance:

Capital and Labor. For Capital cannot keep alive unless it is daily in touch with Labor; and the honest Laborer is constantly becoming a Capitalist. All the industrial war is caused by the crazy theorists who preach Class, and that Labor and Capital are enemies.

Theory and Practice. For no Theory ought to be held unless it is Practical; and no Practice is effective unguided by Theory.

Education and Life. For Education is not something you get to prepare you for Life; it is Life itself. No Life is worthy of the name that is not continuous Education.

Religious and Secular. For Religion, any at least that is of account, is not something apart from daily work and play, something to be added to one's other interests. You don't take up Religion as you would Law or Engineering. Religion is the manner of your work, the temper of your play, the Spirit that breathes through all your daily occupation. Nothing is Secular. All is Divine. Or nothing.

Matter and Spirit. For nobody ever knew of Spirit operating without Matter; and Matter without Spirit is dead and useless.

Happiness and Goodness. They are not Two Things, much less two Opposed things. For there is no genuine Goodness that does not operate as Happiness; and there is no Happiness that is permanent and satisfying to a man's full nature, that is not Goodness.

Rights and Duties. For a Right means what Society or the State ought to allow you to do, and a Duty means what you ought to do for the benefit of Society or the State. The two ought to be harmonious, and play happily together.

Law and Freedom. For Freedom for an individual means full opportunity to grow and exercise his energies; while Law ought to mean simply the best Way for him to do this, in co-operation with others. The Law should not be something to harass, contract and compel, but something to make co-working smooth, to insure activity without friction, to enable everybody to be busy without getting in one another's way. Law is order. And Liberty is impossible in a state of confusion.

The Ideal and the Practical. For nothing is Practical unless it is planned and governed by an Ideal; and the only use of an Ideal is to enable us to Practice efficiently. The Philosopher, the Thinker, the Professor, the Theorists, are just as much doing the world's work as the men who are digging, sweeping, sawing and planing; for most hand work that is not directed by head work is wasted.

Employer and Employed. For they are both workers, else there is no profit for either. The Employer must think, and scheme and take risks, and the Employed must stick to his bench. Both milk the same cow—the Consumer. They are co-workers, and when they fall to fight.

It is making business clean and glad and serviceable to society that will save the world. It is not the doling of charity An honest occupation is the truest philanthropy.

So humanity is cleft and wounded with disruptive ideas. The curse of divorce infects everything. Class and caste are unmitigated curses. Things that ought to blend are separated by the forces of envy and prejudice.

If we could open all our hearts to the mystic force of unity and cleave to one another as flame seeks flame, or as the waters run to the sea, then, as a great teacher has said, "the miracle of shared life and shared experience would be spontaneously felt and the hardness and crudeness of our common life would be bathed in the light that never was on land or sea."

TEXACO ROOFING

the Asphaltic Roofing

If interested in a practical roofing you should know more about the Texaco kind—it is a durable, economical, proof against every kind of weather and easy to apply.

Texaco Roofing is a composition of asphalt with an all-rag felt base. Use it on any kind of structure you may possess. There are four weights—a weight suited to every requirement from factory to residence.

Texaco Roofing resists the action of chemical fumes, gas and smoke as well as rain, fog, sleet and any other form of moisture. That's why it is so economical to use. Texaco Roofing is fire resisting and, due to a special tempering process, proof against weather change. It will not melt in hot weather nor will extremely low temperatures cause it to crack.
